III. ORGANIZATION OF COMPETITIONS

20. For a win a team receives 3 points, for a draw 1 point, for a loss (including walkover) 0 points, win by walkover 3 points.
21. 1. The place in the table is decided by: 1 first (so-called step 1):
 - a) number of points obtained in all group matches (primary criterion and default),
 - b) better goal difference achieved in all group matches
 - c) number of goals scored in all group matches,
- 21.2. If two or more teams in the same group are equal in all three of the above criteria, their places will be determined according to the following criteria (so-called step 2):
 - A) the number of points obtained in the group matches between interested teams (so-called head-to-head record)
 - B) a better goal difference resulting from the group matches between interested teams
 - C) the number of goals scored in all group matches between interested teams
 - D) a draw conducted by the tournament judges

The teams that take first place in the group advance.

21.3 The stakes of the eight best teams (applies when there are more than 4 groups and less than 8) complete the best teams among those who took second place in groups. Then we create a so-called small table, containing the teams in second place.

21.4 The order in the table of "vice leaders" of the groups is determined first (so-called step1), according to criteria and the following factors:

- (a) the number of points obtained in all group matches (primary criterion and default)
- (b) better goal difference achieved in all group matches
- (c) the number of goals scored in all group matches

21.5 If two or more teams in the same group are equal in all three of the above criteria, their places will be determined according to the following criteria (so-called step 2):

- (a) the number of points obtained in the group matches between interested teams (so-called head-to-head record)
- (b) a better goal difference resulting from the group matches between interested teams
- (c) the number of goals scored in all group matches between interested teams
- (d) a draw conducted by the tournament judges.

22. The final round matches must produce a winner. In the event of a tie in regular time, the winners will be determined by a series of penalty kicks (first 3, and if these do not bring a decision -series "until the end").

23. If both teams do not show up for the match on the scheduled date, the result will be verified as a mutual defeat without goal consequences.

24. The time stated in the schedule is the match start time.

25. A match can only start if there are at least 4 players in each team. If the team is represented by a smaller number of players and is considered a team incomplete and the match result will be verified against her with a ratio of 3:0 and 0 points.

IV.FINAL PROVISIONS

26. In the event of non-compliance with the rules or regulations of the game or vulgar behavior, the Organizer has the right to:

- a) verification of the match result,
- b) disqualification of a competitor or team from the competition.

27. Persons taking part in the games should undergo medical examinations confirming their good health beforehand. The players are responsible for failure to perform the examinations and the resulting accidents and legal consequences.

28. The Organizer does not bear any legal responsibility for accidents resulting from the participation of sick persons in the Tournament and for accidents resulting from this and the effects of accidents before, after and during the game.
29. The organizer reserves the right to change the date of matches during the competition.
30. Sportgas is not responsible for items left on the premises of the facility where the Tournament takes place.
31. Any disputes will be resolved by the competition verification committee consisting of: the main judge, the coordinator from the Organizer and the competition manager. The decision of the verification committee is final and irrevocable.
